Ahsan Hassan Usmani

BA-LL.B 2014

Qureshi Law Associates

"The National Outreach Programme (NOP) has not only provided me with the financial support needed to complete my BA-LL.B, but has also given me a wider perspective of things and motivated me to give back to my community. It is extraordinary how much LUMS supports those who cannot afford many facilities. Simply put, as an NOP Scholar one does not have to worry about tuition fee, food, accommodation or any educational resources like computer labs, the library or sports facilities."

Ghazanfar Ali

BS Chemistry 2016

"LUMS has changed my perspective about almost everything in life. It is not all about the degree that you hold after four years, but how you spend these four years and what they teach you. It has made me realise that if you have the passion and patience for achieving your dreams, there is nothing that can stop you, except yourself."

Merit Matters

LUMS admissions are independent of your ability to afford tuition fee. The University offers generous financial support for all programmes based on your academic performance and assessed financial need.

Accessible to All

We are consistently striving to make all our educational programmes accessible to applicants from Pakistan and other countries. Since inception, LUMS has disbursed PKR 3.9 Billion in financial assistance and approximately 30% of the student body receives some financial assistance each year. During the academic year 2016-2017, more than PKR 690 Million has been disbursed as financial aid to LUMS students. Additionally, LUMS offers 100% scholarship to all PhD students.

Applying for Financial Support

The financial need assessment process starts at the beginning of each academic year. In order to avail LUMS financial support, applicants are required to fill the financial aid section of the LUMS Online Admission Application. Alongside, relevant supporting documents need to be submitted by the given deadline.

Below are the steps to follow:

Step 1: Applicants apply to LUMS through the LUMS Online Admission Application and submit the complete application including the financial aid section.

Step 2: Applicants are required to submit hard copies of all required supporting documents that are applicable to their household expenses.

Step 3: If shortlisted for admission, the applicant's aid request is assessed by the LUMS Financial Aid Committee. The need is ascertained by committee members on the basis of submitted financial credentials.

Step 4: The decision is communicated to the applicant through a Letter of Financial Arrangement.

Step 5: Applicant confirms his/her consent by returning the signed Letter of Financial Arrangement along with relevant documents.
